

Office of Experiential Learning Newsletter

November 2021

We are excited to bring back our monthly newsletter to share all the exciting opportunities that OEL has for NMSU Aggies and Alumni.

We hope that everyone had a chance to attend our first two career fairs of the fall semester with Career Expo and the Graduate and Professional School Fair to prepare for the future. There will be other opportunities to participate in upcoming fairs such as:

Health Professions Fair (Nov. 4)
Career Connections (Feb. 2022)
Employment Extravaganza (Mar. 2022)
Educator's Job Fair (April 2022)

Get Ready to Learn and Earn With OEL

Have you thought about participating in a co-op or internship? Are you in the process of a job search? There are currently 8300+ jobs, 3600 internships & co-ops, and 390 fellowships postings in Handshake. Do not wait to start your job or internship search. Log into your Handshake account to access all career related information.

NEW Community Engagement and Outreach

The Office of Experiential Learning is launching a Community Engagement and Outreach initiative in spring 2022. OEL will partner with City of Las Cruces and other organizations throughout the community to bring volunteering opportunities to NMSU students who want to give back to our local community. The City of Las Cruces Volunteer Network will provide an on campus orientation on November 16, 2021 at 3:30 pm in the Corbett Center Student Union Senate Chambers. Scott Rodgers, Volunteer Coordinator, will provide an overview of the City of Las Cruces Program and get NMSU students prepared to volunteer with the City.

For more information or questions, please contact the Office of Experiential Learning at 575-646-1631 or email oel.nmsu.edu!

November Career Events

November Fair Spotlight!

2021 Health Professions Fair
November 4, 2021
Virtual Fair in Handshake
2:00 pm – 5 pm

Careers in the healthcare industry are at an all-time high and as important as ever. The Health Professions Fair is open to all majors, all NMSU students, and community members. Participants are required to have a Handshake account to participate. Community members must create an alumni/community account to participate. NMSU students have access to Handshake automatically and should ensure their account is active.

Cooperative Education & Internships

Cooperative Education & Internships

Are you planning to complete a co-op / internship during Spring 2022? The deadline to apply and submit all program documents is January 24, 2022. Plan ahead to ensure you meet program requirements. You can take the 1-hour Co-op / Internship Program Canvas Orientation Course for more information. In this course, you will learn about the eligibility requirements, program timeline, process, required documents, and benefits of completing a paid co-op. To request access to the Canvas orientation course, email coop@nmsu.edu and make sure to include your Aggie ID number.

If you have any questions about the NMSU Co-op / Internship Program, please call 575-646-4115 or schedule an appointment through Handshake with Audria Lujan, Cooperative Internship and Internship Coordinator.

Education Abroad & National Student Exchange 111

Learn more about study abroad and national exchange at NMSU by attending an Education Abroad & National Student Exchange 111 information session. This session is designed to introduce students to the diverse study abroad and national exchange options available at NMSU, clarify the process of applying and participating in these programs, and ensure that students have a thorough understanding of all study away basics. Sessions are offered in-person and Zoom on a rotational basis every Tuesday from 3:00 – 4:00 pm.

Walk-In Wednesday

During the fall and spring semesters when classes are in session, Education Abroad Advisors have walk-in advising hours available on Wednesday afternoon from 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm. For the fall 2021 semester, Walk-in Wednesdays will be held in-person in Garcia Center, Room 224. Walk in Wednesday is not held during finals week. No appointment is needed.

Education Abroad Ambassadors
Panda Express Fundraiser
Tuesday, November 30th

The Education Abroad Ambassadors student club welcomes and befriends new international exchange students here at NMSU. The Club organizes unique campus and community events that enrich exchange students' study abroad experiences and connects them to our local community. You can help support the Ambassador's Club by ordering from Panda Express on Tuesday, November 30th. Orders can be made online-use coupon code 330107, or in person- just show this flyer.

Passport Acceptance Facility

The NMSU Passport Acceptance Facility will be open during Thanksgiving week, Monday, November 22nd- Wednesday, November 24th and is accepting appointments now! To make an appointment, go to <https://oel.nmsu.edu/passport-appointment-scheduling/>. Processing times are still delayed and now is a great time to get a head start on Spring Break travel plans! For any questions, please email passportoffice@nmsu.edu.

Peace Corp Prep Program

The NMSU Peace Corps Prep certification program is currently accepting applications from interested undergraduate students! The PC Prep program integrates academic coursework with hands-on experience and professional development in preparation for the Peace Corps application. While acceptance into the Peace Corps post program completion is not guaranteed, students who complete the certification do have a competitive edge when applying! All majors welcomed and encouraged to apply! Contact the PC Prep Coordinator, Kari Cena at klrankin@nmsu.edu

Shout out to OEL Student Employees

The Office of Experiential Learning has had the opportunity to employ some outstanding student employees. We would like to give a shout out to our student employees for all the hard work they have done for NMSU students and OEL! We are grateful to have had them as part of our OEL team.

Jessica Camargo
Lauryn Gomez
Education Abroad

Jessica and Lauryn are the new Education Abroad Marketeters! They are in charge of conducting campus tabling events, marketing, and the Education Abroad 111 info sessions. If you have seen the various Education Abroad posters around campus or kept up with EA social media, these awesome student employees have put their skills to work in making those beautiful posters!

Daniel Montoya
Office of Experiential Learning

Daniel has been employed with OEL since August 2020. He has been a huge asset to our team and provides support in graphic design, printing, reception, signage, tabling, and anything else that is asked of him. Daniel brings positive energy to each and every task he is assigned and is always willing to learn new things.

Yesenia Earth
Alberto Campos
Alekcy Herrera
Jacob Romero
Corporate Relations and Career Events

Yesenia, Alberto, Alekcy, and Jacob are all new student employees with Corporate Relations and Career Events. They assist with a variety of activities that bring career events to our students, alumni, and community members. They will be particularly helpful with our in person career fairs which will ramp up in spring 2022.

Alexandria Gonzales
Passport Acceptance Facility

Alex is a new student employee with our Passport Acceptance Facility. Alex assists our Passport Manager with customer follow-up, reception, projects, etc. She also assists OEL with tabling events and other tasks.
